

BARRY-GRAM

VOLUME I

FALL 1980

NUMBER SEVEN

by Gary Adams

HOW CAN I BUY A VIDEOTAPE OF BARRY'S CONCERTS AND TELEVISION SPECIALS? Ginger Curry, Sebring, FLA

Sorry Ginger, but as yet, there are still no legal tapes available. Rumors abound, however, that a "Special" might soon be available...if so, we'll be sure to let you know.

I HEARD THAT BARRY WAS RECORDING A "LIVE" ALBUM DURING HIS CURRENT TOUR.

WHEN AND WHERE? Jackie Snider, Great Falls, Montana
I've heard the same thing. So far, however, it's only a nice rumor.

WILL BARRY RECORD "HERE WE GO AGAIN"...THE SONG THAT OPENED THE 1978 TOUR? Charlene deJong, Ft. Pleasant, New Jersey

Too bad. Unless you were there...you'll probably never hear the song again.

I'VE HEARD THAT BARRY'S ACT IN VEGAS AND TAHOE IS DIFFERENT FROM HIS USUAL CONCERTS. ANY TRUTH? Janet Cundiff, Gig Harbor, Washington

Right Janet. In Vegas and Tahoe, Barry is limited to two...one hour performances each night...each with an opening act. When "On the Road," Barry does about two hours on his own...with about a twenty minute intermission.

HOW CAN I GET A JACKET WITH THE SIX STRIPES LIKE BARRY IS WEARING IN THE LAST BARRYGRAM? Susan Chan, Oakland, California
Thanks Susan. We've been thinking about making them available through the BMIFC...keep your eyes open for our Spring issue.

WHO ARE ALL THE OTHER PEOPLE THAT SING ON "ONE VOICE?" Jami McKeown, Gradenhutter, Ohio

Barry, Barry, Barry, Barry, etc recorded over and over again.

ON HIS LIVE ALBUM, I SAY THAT BARRY OPENS HIS VSM WITH "ALL RIGHT...SIT, SIT, SIT!!!" MY FRIENDS ALL THINK HE'S SAYING SOMETHING ELSE. WHO'S RIGHT? Barbara Ward, Muskegon, Michigan

Fortunately Barbara...you're right.

IS BARRY GOING TO POSE IN THE NUDE? WHERE DO I BUY A PRINT? R. Kent, Oshkenash, Rhode Island

Unless your willing to provide the staple, the answer is "Nollll"

HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE

by Cary Lane

Cary Lane here...once again deciding to carry on with all the craziness from the Coast. This month, it's:

TINSELTOWN TATTLERS TELL...

Now that the father/son Sinatra/Manilow flick is no longer in the works...studio execs are now touting a brother/sister flick with Mr. M co-starring either Liza, Goldie, or Bella Abzug. Bella Abzug?

FACT OR FANCY?...Sooooo

many fans are forcing their footsies to Barry's "Star" in front of the Nederlander's Pantages Theatre in Hollywood that City Fathers are considering declaring it a traffic hazard.

ON THE RADIO...Get ready to tune in your dial. Final tracks on Barry's latest album are now complete...with talk of release just as soon as possible it looks like 1980's Number One Holiday Gift might soon be available.

FROM THE CARROT PATCH...

the Easter Funny reports that this years Springtime will feature return engagements to (or at least we hear)...Atlantic City, Las Vegas, and, that's right...there's an and...Miami.

ROOTS THREE...A new saga? Seems that Marty Panzer has joined the great trek West and is now happily ensconced midst the cogs of the music biz in Hollywood.

HOLD ON...IT'S COMIN...

Barry's "We Still Have Time" is now set to appear not only as the theme on the Robby Benson flick of the same name, but also as a cut on the new album.

THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE...

We've heard that the new album will be released by ARISTA with a new publishing company...MANILOW MUSIC...Barry's latest step into the magical maze of the music industry.

WITH VISIONS OF TICKETS STILL

IN MY HEAD...It seems I've launched the stampedes of the 80's with rumor reports about possible Concert dates...changes...and chances to see Barry. All I can say is that I report it as soon as I hear it...and always from the best sources. To those of you still unable to get tickets...I'm sorry; to everyone else...I hope you had as great a time as I did. Personally I didn't even believe the tickets were real until the show started...and even then I was doubtful. In Hollywood you don't count on anything until it happens...and even then you wonder. Oh well...that's life...and that's all for now. This is Cary Lane saying goodbye...and keep on shining.

15,000 FANS SHRINK... Soaring with Scott Nederlander 1,000 feet above the Nederlander's Merriweather Post Pavilion in Baltimore, Maryland.

BACKSTAGE

by David Taylor

I had almost forgotten the sound. I knew it was something like a 747 flying overhead...or getting whupped up the side of the head with a two by four. But somehow...I had forgotten just how overwhelming it really is. And then I heard it again.

Barry opened his Concert Tour in Providence, Rhode Island. Twelve thousand fans inside the Providence Civic Center waiting...and waiting...and waiting. From the fifth row I watched as the lights dimmed...and the crowd went crazy. And then I heard it again. Like an earthquake starting somewhere in the distance I could hear the tidal wave of noise starting to build behind me. The pure volume of sound that grew and grew until you could actually feel it moving around you. Man... was it loud. I mean it was really loud. I mean it was so loud. Get the point. There were a lot of people and they were really loud.

And it didn't seem to stop. Everytime Barry would start another song...or hit another note...it happened...all over again.

Something tells me that this time it won't be easy to forget.

I could go on and tell you about the show...but I won't. There's no way that I can describe what happened. And anyway...it's better that you see it for yourself. And hear it. And remember that feeling when the super trooper spotlights finally shine on Mr. M.

Afterwards everyone on the crew rushed backstage... jumping and shouting...really up that the first night had gone so well...that the show was great...the audience was great...the lights worked...the amps worked...etc., etc., etc.

By three in the morning we had calmed down enough to scarf down some Chinese food and watch the test pattern on the local station. From there we moved on to Baltimore...where Scott Nederlander scheduled a helicopter to circle overhead for a skyhigh look at the Merriweather Post Pavilion and the lines of cars stretched out to Baltimore and Washington D.C. Do you know what 15,000 people look like from 1,000 feet up? Now I know how Woodstock views the world.

Each night we'd somehow manage to get Barry out of the Backstage Door via several cars and a police escort. If we waited too long...several thousand friends would gather for one more standing ovation outside the gate. We figured that two nights out of three wasn't too bad. Anyway...I'm sure the dents in the car can be fixed. Can't they?

From there it was on to Atlantic City...Resorts International...and two shows a night. Easy for me to say... not too much fun for Barry. The last show ends in the wee hours of the morning. That means Barry has breakfast at noon, lunch at four...and dinner at eleven. Something tells me a lot of stomachs are going to suffer an identity crisis.

Then...we hit the road. The soft life in Atlantic City (for us, at least) was replaced by the Summer Series...one, two, and three-nighters before audiences of 10,000 to 25,000. Though it was hard work, lots of moving, long trips to the concert site, and the inevitable job of packing and unpacking...it was also very, very rewarding to see Barry perform before SRO audiences. In a summer of very dismal concert successes...Barry's overwhelming response from his friends made us all feel very good.

Now it's off on Tour Two. This time we'll be indoors...throughout the South, across the Border, and Overseas. It'll be Thanksgiving in England... where we'll probably have to substitute English Plum Pudding for the traditional American Turkey. And it'll mean two more months of packing and unpacking. And...if we're lucky...it'll mean two more months of being whupped up the side of the head with that wonderful sound of many, many friends sharing a once in a lifetime event.

From somewhere on the road...someplace in America... this is David Taylor getting ready...one more time...to pack.

READY, SET, GO

Time to flick your Bics and catch up with the latest Pals of the Pen...all eager to make new friendships and share their interest in Mr. M.

AT THE COPA.....Rolling onstage midst congas and palms...Barry surprised us all.

AT THE GREEK.....Thousands of fans light candles to share their feelings at the closing night of Barry's Summer Tour.

DATELINE

Well if last year at this time we reported that the season was a little slow...then this year at this time we can report that the season is a little fast. Ending up the month of August with a triumphant nine day, sold-out engagement at the Greek... Barry finally had a chance to say hello backstage to good friends Adrienne Andersen, Marty Panzer, Sue Mengers, Neil Simon, Gary Pudney, Alan Ladd Jr....and a host of Hollywood celebs. After three months on the road...the chance to re-establish old ties was welcomed...before starting off on...

SEPTEMBER...Planned originally to include a few weeks off in the sun...then cut to a week...and then to two days. That left enough time for Barry to head back into the studio to finish up his new album. That means long, long days in the studio...photo sessions...and mixing the final tracks in hopes of a Fall release. Then it's off to...

OCTOBER...Back on the road...this time at major indoor arenas and auditoriums primarily in the South, SouthEast, MidWest, and NorthEast. Somewhere along the way there's talk of taping another special for cable television...before he finishes up in...

NOVEMBER...with two more weeks in the United States...first-time-ever performances in Toronto and then off to Thanksgiving in London...already sold-out concerts in several major cities...a chance to do some last minute shopping for the Holidays and then, hopefully, home before we all cave-in. ...

PACKIN' UP?

Before you do (move, that is) take a sec to drop Gladys a note...send her a carrier pigeon...or dash off a telegram with your old address, new address...and your membership number. Unfortunately...we always seem to lose a lot of mis-addressed BarryGram's to that great Post Office in the sky. So keep us in touch.

They should've known then
When they took that picture of you
Of the success
that was to come
With everything
you do

Your dimples are really cute
And your laugh is quite beguiling
Your eyes sparkle
even now
And your charm shows
when you're smiling

You're still quite a kid
Not just for your superstar shine
And because you care
and remember
Us — who've been behind you all the time!

by Cindy McAllister,
Cortland, New York

It's endless and timeless
And I don't understand it
But it's something you've given to me
It's music and laughter
Dreams of the heart
A breath of fresh air to see

Misty memories of song and dance
Come clear when I need a friend
To ease my mind, lift my love
It's something on which I depend
You'll never hurt me honey
You don't even know my name
But I appreciate your faithfulness
The melodies never treat me the same

And it's endless and timeless
And I may never understand it
But thanks for sharing it with me

I'm one-up on the others
I like it this way
I'm devoted to you...and still free

AND WE THOUGHT WE HAD TROUBLE

Seems that our fellow-fans in England watched in dismay as tickets went on sale and sold out at Wembley Arena in London and Bingley Hall in Stafford. That's a total of 36,606 seats sold in less than six hours.

Those lucky enough to catch a pair had grabbed the trains the night before and then camped out overnight to guarantee a place in line and a chance to see Barry live.

Barry performs November 27, 28 and 29th at Wembley and then moves on to Bingley Hall on December 1st and 2nd.

NOW IT'S TIME TO SAY GOODBYE

This issue is very special. Not only because of the Holidays, but also because it represents my first anniversary home again with the Fan Club.

In many ways this year has been very special...and has made us all very proud.

Proud of the fact that we have finally been able to give you advance notice of Barry's schedule...an inside look at life backstage...exclusive fan club photos...reduced prices on special gifts...and answers to your many, many questions.

But most of all...this year has been very special because of you...the friendships that have been renewed...the friendships that have been established...the many great people I have talked to and shared our mutual admiration of Barry.

I hope that the New Year will mark an even greater year for us all...both in our personal lives...and in the things we share together. But most of all...I hope you'll join me in my wishes that 1981 represents an even greater year for Barry and the beautiful music he shares with us all.

So to 1981...and most of all...to all of you.

I love ya...

HOLLYWOOD BIGWIGS.....Join Barry, Arista President Clive Davis (Right & Rear of Barry), General Manager Bob McTyre (Far Right & Rear) of the Nederlander's Pantages Theatre and Greek Theatre at the unveiling of Barry's "STAR" on Hollywood Boulevard.

Hi Friends...

It's that time again...in fact, a little early...for another issue of your BarryGram brought to you by Covina's own version of the remnants of the Little Rascals.

Before we begin, however, I want to say a special "Hello" to Rosie, and Debi, and Marilyn, and Sandy, and all those other wonderful people I had hoped to meet during the Tour Part I and somehow never managed to get to. Seems that my great plans for a few trips 'cross country got short circuited by my typewriter and the stacks of letters that the Tour seemed to inspire. So "Hello," and let's hope that I'll be able to meet some of you face-to-face on Part II.

I should add that we also just realized that another BarryGram is due, that we have tons of new information and photos to sift through, and that the Holidays are upon us.

The result...our First Annual Holiday BarryGram...with some special treats inside...and visions of goodies created by MadMan...speaking of whom, is now over in the corner dreaming of a Christmas Computer for under his tree. He says that computers are now so advanced that a computer could replace his adding machine and pencil. I think we'll wait a few weeks 'til they invent one that could replace him.

I hope you enjoy this special issue as much as I enjoy your very special letters. Yours' are always a delight to read and a pleasure to send along to Barry.

And one last thing...just in case I don't get a chance to drop you a line in person...from all of us...Have a very, Barry Christmas and a Happy Holiday.

Sincerely,

Kate Naughton
